Dear Mr. Fraser:

Re: Exemption from Requirement to Hold a Communications Operating Licence

In reference to your application dated September 11, 2013 regarding the above mentioned. After its review, the Regulatory Authority (RA) has concluded that the service offered by ViewPoint Media Systems (VMS) is considered a value-added service and exempt from the obligation to hold a Class Operating Licence.

I refer you to the Section 5 of the attached obligations of VMS exemption. Violation of these obligations may result in legal ramifications. The RA reserves the right to review your service offering after one year.

The RA wishes you all the success in your venture to offer cloud based TV.

Yours Sincerely,

Philip Micallef
Regulatory Authority - CEO
